

Webinar Opportunity:

The Impact of the Financial Crisis on the Job Market in New York

Many areas of the New York City economy have been affected by the recent economic downturn. Please join a panel of financial and industry experts as they examine the impact of the financial crisis on the current state and future of the job market in the areas of fashion, health care, education, the financial sector, entertainment, and construction.

When:
Wednesday,
November 18, 2009
11:00 AM - 12:45 PM EST

Register Now:
<https://www2.gotomeeting.com/register/665944307>

Cost: Free

Lucas Bernard is an Assistant Professor of Business at NYC College of Technology (NYCCT) with a varied background, including everything from entrepreneurial experience to university teaching. His business expertise stretches from transportation planning to franchising to a dot-com start up, while his teaching portfolio includes courses in economics, corporate finance, mathematics and business statistics.

David B. Smith is Chairman of the Entertainment Technology Department at NYCCT and Director of Research and Development at Realtime Music Solutions. He is co-inventor of the Sinfonia ® orchestral enhancement instrument, and has overseen its implementation in over seventy-thousand performances, including 14 national tours, London's West End and Cirque du Soleil.

Charles Stone is Associate Professor at Brooklyn College teaching Investments and Corporate Finance. He is a leading expert in asset-backed securities and senior life settlements securitization, and is co-author with Anne Zissu of The Securitization Markets Handbook: Issuing and Investing in Mortgage- and Asset-Backed Securities.

Anne Zissu is the Chairperson of the Department of Business at NYCCT and a research fellow at The Polytechnic Institute of NYU. She is co-founding editor of The Financier and The Securitization Conduit, and co-author with Charles Stone of The Securitization Markets Handbook. Her research has appeared in leading academic journals and has been an expert witness in cases of securitization transactions.